He was sent on to the Hustings Court for trial and allowed bail. In the mean time, until the case is decided by the Hustings Court his business. here will be closed. As business of the same character is carried on in other cities the trial of this case will be regarded as a test of its legality.

DEVELOPING GRANITE QUARRIES. The lessess of the State quarry on the asylum grounds, in Dinwiddle county, have purchased the necessary machinery for opening and working the fine quarries there. This machinery will arrive here in a few days, and work will be commenced at once. In the mean time the railroad from this city to these quarries is being received to complete the In the mean time the railroad from this city to these quarries is being pushed to completion, a large portion of the track having already been laid. This road completed and the State quarries opened, it will inevitably follow that in a very short time all the quarries on private lands about the terminus of the road will be opened. It is estimated that there is enough of the first granite in the world in this immediate vicinity to meet all demands for a hundred nity to meet all demands for a hundred

KILLED BY A GAME ROOSTER, Information was received here to-day of the death at Hot Springs, Ark, of the four-year-old boy of Mr. J. A. Stringer from a most remarkable cause. Mr. Stringer is a maive of Petersburg, and is nearly related to many families here. The account of the circumstances causing the death of the little fellow is given substantially as follows; Mr. Stringer was the owner of a game-cock, which he usually kent caged. The litwhich he usually kent caged. The lit-tle bay opened the coop and turned the fowl out. He was immediately attacked by the rooster, and his head and face were by the rooster, and his head and face were fearfully lacerated by the sharp spurs of the chicken. The boy's shrieks attracted the attention of the mother, who ran to his rescue and bore him into the house, where the blood was washed off and his wounds dressed. It was found upon examination by physicians that the spurs had punctured the temples and base of the skull. Suporcame on and death resulted in about twenty-four hours, caused by effusion of blood on the brain. The physicians from the first pronounced recovery impossible. The case is one of the most remarkable on record. s one of the most remarkable on record. PERSONAL AND NEWS NOTES.

Mr. John W. Wyche celebrated his eightfeth birthday to-day, and Mr. R. A. Martio his sixtieth. These two gentlemen are among our most honored and beloved citizens, and they were the recipients of hearty congratulation from many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Morrison celebrated the thirty-fith anniversary of their Mr. and Mrs. with an inversary of their murrage last night, and a host of their friends were present to extend their congratulations. It was their "linen wedding." and remembrances were offered in the shape of many scores of appropriate presents, sent not only by their friends in this city but from many places from abroad. It is interesting to note that of the six couples who waited upon Mr. and Mrs. Morrison thirty-five years ago all are living except one groomsman and one bridesmaid. Rev. Dr. C. J. Gibson, who married them, was present last night to be-stow his blessing. Forty years ago Mr. Morrison went into business in this city with Mr. William Turnbull and Mr. R. T. Stone and all three of these gentlemen are still living here in the enjoyment of good health. The public installation of the officers of plars but night proved to be a most delignt-ful and interesting occasion. Sarsaparilla is different from and superior to any other medicine. Peculiar in combination, proportion and preparation of ingredients, Hood's Sarsapariila possesses the full curative value of the best known remedies of the vegetable kingdom. Feculiar in its medicinal merit, Hood's Sarsapa-rilla accomplishes cures hitherto unknown. Feculiar in strength and economy — Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine of which can truly be said, "100 doses one dollar." Medicines in larger and smaller bottles require larger doses, and do not produce as good results as Hood's Sarsaparilla. Peculiar in its "good name at home "—there is more of Hood's Sarsapatilla sold in Lowell, where it is made, than of all other blood purifiers. Peculiar in its phenomenal record of sales abroad, no other preparation has ever attained such popularity in so short a time. Do not be in
